

January 7, 2016 | 52 pages

OttawaCommunityNews.com

Bazaar/bake sale proceeds go to four churches

John Curry

john.curry@metroland.com

The annual Christmas bazaar and bake sale at the Stittsville Retirement Community by Revera on Stittsville Main Street raised $1,850 thanks to the support and generosity of the Stittsville community.

The residents of the Stittsville Retirement Community decided to use these funds to help others and so it was decided to donate the money raised to four churches in Stittsville to use to assist families in need this Christmas.

The Stittsville Retirement Community rounded off the funds raised to $2,000 so that $500 could be given to each of the four churches involved.

The four Stittsville churches selected are St. Thomas Anglican Church, St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Stittsville United Church and Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

On Tuesday, Dec. 8, representatives from these four churches were on hand at the Stittsville Retirement Community to receive the $500 per church donation.

Rev. Jane McCaig represented St.

Thomas Anglican Church while Rev. Doug Kendall represented St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Grant Dillenbeck represented Stittsville United Church while pastoral associate Marian Poyner represented Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

The annual Christmas bazaar and bake sale at the Stittsville Retirement Community took place on Saturday, Nov. 21.

JOHN BRUMMELL/METROLAND

At the presentation of $500 donations to each of four Stittsville churches from the proceeds of the recent annual Christmas bazaar and bake sale at the Stittsville Retirement Community on Stittsville Main Street are, seated at the front, Rev. Doug Kendall of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, left, and Stittsville Retirement Community resident Jean Spence, right; and, back row, standing, from left, Stittsville Retirement Community resident Margaret Graham; Rev. Grant Dillenbeck of Stittsville United Church; pastoral associate Marian Poyner of Holy Spirit Catholic Church; Stittsville Retirement Community resident Monetta Ayotte; Rev. Jane McCaig of St. Thomas Anglican Church; and Stittsville Retirement community resident Lois Garland.