

Kanata Stittsville Refugee Sponsorship Group welcomes refugee

John Curry

john.curry@metroland.com

The Kanata Stittsville Refugee Sponsorship Group which involves a number of churches including St. Thomas Anglican Church, Stittsville United Church and St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, all in Stittsville, has welcomed to Canada a refugee from Syria which the group has sponsored.

Dani Marina, a single male from Syria who has been living in Jordan, arrived in Ottawa recently.

He has family members living in Ottawa who will be supporting him as he gets established in the community.

The Kanata Stittsville Refugee Sponsorship Group had submitted a refugee sponsorship application for Dani last March.

He had fled Syria due to the violence and persecution that he faced there as a Christian.

The Kanata Stittsville Refugee Sponsorship Group recently made a significant financial donation to the Centretown Emergency Food Centre to assist it in providing support to those in the Centretown areas of the city of Ottawa who are refugees from Syria.