

Jane's Song by the Choir (to the tune of This Old Man)

Reverend Jane, she's the one
She knows how to get things done:
Guiding us through many highs and lows...
St. Thomas keeps her on her toes!

Blessed with gifts and talents rare,
Her forte lies in pastoral care.
She sings! Tells jokes! Her cup overflows...
St Thomas keeps her on her toes!

As our priest, she's in demand;
Her life can't always go as planned.
Weddings, funerals, so much we'll never know...
St Thomas keeps her on her toes!

Mom and wife, grandma too –
Jane has always lots to do.
Too bad she can't count on church for some repose...
St Thomas keeps her on her toes.

As a nurse, she was trained
To heal and comfort those in pain.
She still does that for us now, I suppose...
St Thomas keeps her on her toes!

Now she's soon to retire.
To what does Reverend Jane aspire?
Cottage days and time to read and doze...
And Bob to keep her on her toes!
